Each web-site can send its own cookie to your browser if your browser's preferences allow it, but (to protect your privacy) your browser only permits a web-site to access the cookies it has already sent to you, not the cookies sent to you by other sites.

Choices about Cookies

- You can configure your browser to accept all cookies, reject all cookies, or notify you when a cookie is set. (Each browser is different, so check the "Help" menu of your browser to learn how to change your cookie preferences.)
- If you reject all cookies, you will not be able to use Yahoo! products or services that require you to "sign in," and you may not be able to take full advantage of all offerings. However, many Yahoo! products and services do not require that you accept cookies.

~~Yahoo!'s Practices Regarding Cookies~~

~~Yahoo! uses its own cookies for a number of purposes, including to:~~ access user

info.

- ~~Access your information~~ when you "sign in," so that we can provide you with customized content, such as My Yahoo!.
- Keep track of preferences you specify while you are using Yahoo!'s services -- for example, the local zip code you want to use in Yahoo! Yellow Pages or Yahoo! Movies.
- Display the most appropriate advertising banners, based on your interests and activity on Yahoo!.
- Assist merchants in Yahoo! Stores and Yahoo! Shopping to process the items in your shopping cart.
- Estimate and report our total audience size and traffic.
- Conduct research to improve Yahoo!'s content and services.
- Require you to re-enter your Yahoo! password after a certain period of time has elapsed to protect you against others accidentally accessing your account contents.

Other Companies' Cookies on Yahoo!

- Please note that Yahoo! allows other companies that are presenting advertisements on some of our pages to set and access their cookies

- on your computer.
- Advertisers' use of cookies is subject to their own privacy policies, not the Yahoo! Privacy Policy.

Yahoo! Wallet

Yahoo! Wallet allows users to store credit card, shipping and billing information in order to make purchasing easier and faster wherever you make purchases on Yahoo!. You must be a registered Yahoo! user to create a Yahoo! Wallet.

Information Collection and Use Practices

- Certain services on Yahoo! require you to use Wallet, such as buying a bigger mailbox in Yahoo! Mail. Other services offer Wallet as a convenience to you like Express Checkout in Yahoo! Shopping.
- In addition to registration information, Yahoo! Wallet asks for credit card information (first and last name, credit card number and expiration date), billing address and shipping address.

Information Sharing and Disclosure Practices

- ~~The information stored in your Yahoo! Wallet will only be forwarded to the merchants you specify at the time you place an order and will be used for all your Yahoo! recurring billing services that use Wallet.~~
- ~~When you choose to submit this information to a merchant in Yahoo! Shopping, Yahoo! will submit the order form with the information from your Yahoo! Wallet. To learn more about the merchant's use of this information, please read their Privacy Policy.~~

Practices Regarding Your Ability to Update or Delete Information

- ~~To update or delete information in your Yahoo! Wallet, visit wallet.yahoo.com and sign in using your Yahoo! Security Key or access your Wallet from your Account Information screen.~~
- You can completely delete your Wallet by clicking on the "Delete Wallet" link at the top of the page or edit any field by selecting one of the "edit" links.

Security Practices

- The contents of your Yahoo! Wallet are password-protected by your Yahoo! password as well as your Yahoo! Security Key. Yahoo! uses secure servers, when appropriate, for added security. Please remember that no data transmission over the Internet, or by other means, can be guaranteed to be 100% secure.

Yahoo! Shopping

~~Yahoo! Shopping allows you to access thousands of merchants and products in one place. To make a purchase on Yahoo! Shopping, you are not required to be a registered Yahoo! user. But to expedite the check-out process and use Yahoo! Wallet, you must be a registered user who is signed in.~~

Information Collection and Use Practices

- Purchases

- When you make a purchase through Yahoo! Shopping, the merchant will ask you for your name, billing and shipping addresses, email address, telephone number, and credit card information.
- ~~Each merchant from whom you make a purchase will receive your personal and order information. Merchants may ask for additional information. Each merchant is solely responsible for their use of your personal and order information.~~ merchant receives personal info.

- Feedback and Testimonials

- Yahoo! Shopping offers a feedback form that allows you to send us comments and suggestions regarding Yahoo! Shopping. This form asks for your name and email address but only your email address is required. Your email address may be used to contact you regarding the feedback that you have provided to us, but will not be used for any marketing purposes.
- Yahoo! Shopping also allows you to submit a testimonial about your experience using Shopping that asks for your name, email address and information about your experience. This information may be shared with the press or made publicly available if you consent to these uses.

- My Shopping

- ~~If you are a registered Yahoo! user you can customize a My Shopping page that you are able to access when you are signed in. You can edit your My Shopping page at any time. This page may include your shopping carts, order status, Yahoo! Wallet information, Yahoo! Points information, or other information that you choose to display.~~ user customizes shopping page

- Shopping Specials

- If you choose to participate in this program, Yahoo! asks for your email address and optional special interests. Yahoo! will contact you based on knowing that you have visited Yahoo! Shopping.

Information Sharing and Disclosure Practices

*additional personal info.
collected* →

- In addition to the merchant, Yahoo! may also collect and use certain personal and order information from Yahoo! users who use Yahoo! Shopping. This is disclosed to you during the checkout process or when you sign up for other services.
- Yahoo! Shopping uses this information to provide products and services which are more relevant to users. If you do not want Yahoo! to access this information, you can "sign-out" of Yahoo! before completing your order.
- You can access your order status and history in Yahoo! Shopping if you are a registered Yahoo! user.
- Yahoo! does not give your personal information or any information about where you shopped or what you bought to any of our partners or advertisers.

Practices Regarding Your Ability to Update or Delete Information

- You can update your information in your Yahoo! Wallet at any time.
- If you participate in Shopping Specials you can unsubscribe at any time.

Practices Regarding Cookies

*Cookies used to facilitate checkout
process*

- ~~Yahoo! Shopping uses cookies to facilitate the checkout process.~~ If you choose to change your browser preferences to disable cookies, you will still be able to make purchases through most Yahoo! Shopping merchants but you will be limited in the number of items you can purchase at one time.

Security Practices

- Yahoo! Shopping merchants use secure servers to protect all of your personal information including your name, address and credit card information. Please remember that no data transmission over the Internet, or by other means, can be guaranteed to be 100% secure.

Other

- When you use Yahoo! Shopping, you are subject to the Yahoo! Terms of Service.
- Please see Yahoo! Shopping Help if you have questions about this service.
